17th Sunday in Ordinary Time 28th July 2019

Being aware of loving and being loved is the lifeblood of being human, the seedbed of contentment and joy. Prayer is tuning into this awareness, absorbing it and letting it seep into our being. Jesus is the exemplar of this prayer. Constantly aware of the love between Himself and the father, Jesus still needed to tune into that relationship, to enjoy it, to be continuously amazed by it, to be reassured by it

A WORD OF THANKS FROM THE PRESENTATION SISTERS: The Presentation Sisters would like to say a big Thank You to each one of you who contributed to make our final days here in Rahan so memorable. We would also like to thank our many friends who visited us in recent weeks and offered prayers and Masses for our intentions. Your support and love are deeply appreciated. The unveiling of the stone at the Thatch was very moving and of course the beautiful Mass on Sunday July 7th was an amazing celebration of life. A special word of thanks to the committee who put many hours of hard work into the planning of these two special events. There were many people involved at all levels and we are grateful to each one of you. As we move on to the next part of our journey we treasure the memories and assure you of our prayers always. Mile Buiochas from the Presentation Sisters, Killina
