33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time 14th November 2021

We live in anxious times. Many are anxious about viruses and variants, climate change and ageing in a rapidly changing world. Sharing our anxieties with loved ones in family or among trusted friends can help us to cope. But with changing circumstances of mobile relationships, who can we depend on to throw us a lifeline when the chips are down?

Annual Remembrance Masses: Due to Covid restrictions we were unable to have a Remembrance Mass for those who have died since November 2019. We propose that we will now have two Remembrance Masses remembering those who have died from November 2019 to November 2020 on Friday 12th November at 7.30pm in St. Colman's Church, Mucklagh and also remembering those who have died from November 2020 to November 2021 on Friday 19th November at 7.30pm in St. Colman's Church, Mucklagh. Families of those who have died during each of these years will be invited to take part in either Mass. Remembrance forms will also be available at the doors of the churches and the names of all of our loved ones who have died will be called out and included at each of these Remembrance Masses and a Remembrance Candle will be provided on the night. Photographs in frames of our loved ones who have died are also very welcome to be included and can be placed with a candle available at the front of the altar. Remembrance forms for all of our loved ones who have died can be dropped into the Parochial Houses or the three sacristies of the Parish. Many thanks to one and all

List of the Dead Envelopes: Are available in the three churches of the Parish of Rahan. Envelopes can be dropped in to the parochial houses or the parish office on Wednesdays. Many thanks to one and all as we remember all of our loved ones for the month of November and during the 1st Friday masses throughout the year. These envelopes can be dropped into the parochial houses and sacristies or the parish office on Wednesdays
