4th Sunday of Lent 22nd March 2020

Jesus is a controversial figure. It's not that he courts controversy; quite the contrary, in many incidents in the Gospels, Jesus flees the limelight. Yet he is beset by controversy simply on account of who he is and who he claims to be. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' healing of a man born blind does not settle anything in the eyes of his opponents. This miraculous cure merely increases the controversy surrounding Jesus, as his opponents struggle to find ways of dismissing Jesus even after the truth about him has been made clear.

Rahan Parish Sunday Mass will now be broadcast via webcam from Lawless Funeral Home, Mucklagh at 11.00am each Sunday. The webcam can be located by this step by step procedure.
