5th Sunday of Lent 29th March 2020

At the heart of this Sunday's Gospel is a double reproach. When Jesus finally arrives at the home of his deceased friend Lazarus, the dead man's sisters, Martha and Mary, each chide him in the same words: 'If you had been here, my brother would not have died.' In Martha's case, the reproach is followed by an expression of great confidence: 'I know that, even now, whatever you ask of God, he will grant you.'
