St Camillus de Lellis is patron saint of the sick, hospitals and nurses. He dedicated his life to the sick and to organising hospitals. He founded the Order of the Camillians, priests and brothers who work in the area of health.

Prayer to St Camillus De Lellis : Glorious St Camillus, turn your merciful eyes upon those who suffer and those who care for them. Grant to the sick Christian resignation and trust in the goodness and power of God. Make those who take care of the sick be generous and lovingly dedicated. Help me to understand the mystery of suffering as a means of redemption and the way to God. May your protection comfort the sick and their families and encourage them to live together in love. Bless those who dedicate themselves to the infirm and may the good God grant peace and hope to all. Amen. Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be. St Camillus de Lellis, pray for us.

A quote from Blessed Carlo Acutis due to be canonized a saint next year
 I think that many people do not fully understand the value of Mass, because if they recognized the enormous blessing we have in a Lord who gives himself as our food and drink in the Sacred Host, they would go to Mass every day to participate in the fruits of the sacrifice and let go of so many superfluous thin

Today’s Gospel: We do need words to preach the Gospel, The apostles were sent out with nearly nothing, at least in earthly terms. They reached people through the witness of their lives and through their good works. They relied on God for all that they needed. They resisted evil and helped those afflicted by it. They helped the sick. They preached repentance to those who would listen. There is nothing stopping us from doing these same things. We bear witness to Christ when we rely on God and live holy, simple lives. We bear witness to Christ when we say “no” to the evil temptations of the society that surrounds us. This Christian life of witness is not an easy life, but it is a fulfilled life, because it is full of the goodness of God. When people see someone truly living the Christian life, they will notice, and they will react. We will be rejected by some, or even many, people, in which case we shake the dust off our sandals, as the apostles did. Others, though, will be drawn to us, because they will want to know what it is that is different about us.

Rahan Community Hall Committee Thank all who supported their American Tea Party last Saturday . Thanks to caterers who provided food, Adrian Rabbit for music, those who attended, bought tickets ,sponsored raffle prizes, and made it such a great occasion for chat , fun and an enjoyable community event.

It was great to see everyone present with such great smiles on their faces The next night of Social Dancing in Rahan Hall takes place on Saturday next 20th July at 9.30pm . Music by Glenn Flynn . Light Refreshments served Admission €10, All welcome

Smiling is infectious Poem , Smiling is infectious you catch it like the flu, When someone smiled at me today, I started smiling too. I passed around the corner and someone saw my grin. When he smiled I realized I'd passed it on to him. I thought about that smile, then I realized its worth. A single smile, just like mine could travel round the earth. So, if you feel a smile begin, don't leave it undetected. Let's start an epidemic quick, and get the world infected!

A Thought for Today Working for Christ: To do the work of Christ is really quite simple. It means to be faithful in little things, for to be faithful in little things is a big thing. It means to do one’s task, no matter how humble, not only thoroughly but joyfully. It means to make oneself available, yet never to seek the limelight. It means to make oneself useful, without seeking to push oneself. It means to carry one’s own burden, without, as far as possible, becoming a burden on others. In a word, it means to be at one’s post, helpful and faithful, loyal and constant. Lord, make me an instrument for the building of your kingdom.

A New Marble Altar has been installed this week in Mucklagh Church. It was originally in the Presentation Convent chapel in Killina. Thanks to Tony Hickey and Sean Rennicks from Kells for help with removing old altar and installing the new one. Thanks also to Eddie Dwyer for work done on lighting up the new Stations of the Cross which also came from the Presentation Convent chapel in Killina

Mucklagh Cemetery After discussion with many parishioners local undertakers and in order to preserve the life length of Mucklagh cemetery for present and future generations we have decided that from now on only single graves will be allocated to people wishing to purchase a grave in Mucklagh cemetery. A single grave will accommodate the burial of 3 persons. As is the existing policy no graves will be sold in advance of when needed. For all who have purchased graves already, those purchases will be honored. The above policy of single graves only already works in Durrow and Tullamore cemeteries and is seen to be working well. Many Thanks to people in advance for your understanding. Fr Michael and Fr Frank.
