

Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me;
and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the One who sent me."

Today's Gospel: - Jesus challenges his disciples to put self-interest in second place.
All too often we can look at life's challenges only from the perspective of how they affect us. The varying responses from governments around the world to the refugee crisis illustrate well the struggle between self- interest and the common good. We have even seen how people-smugglers have turned the misfortune of refugees to their own financial gain. In today's gospel, Jesus challenges all who would be his disciples to choose the unnoticed greatness of putting themselves last, to find the authority that comes from being servants to others, to discover the power that emanates from advocating on behalf of the poor and the displaced, the forgotten and the alienated. That's how we can find a place in our world as contributing and responsible members of society, and as worthy disciples of Jesus.
That's what will give our lives meaning and purpose.

St. Padre Pio on Monday Mass at 9.30am in Mucklagh & Lynally Cemetery at 7pm

Powerful Healing Prayer of St. Padre Pio Heavenly Father, I thank you for loving me. I thank you for sending your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, to the world to save and to set me free. I trust in your power and grace that sustain and restore me. Loving Father, touch me now with your healing hands, for I believe that your will is for me to be well in mind, body, soul and spirit. Cover me with the most precious blood of your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ from the top of my head to the soles of my feet.
Cast out anything that should not be in me. Root out any unhealthy and abnormal cells. Open any blocked arteries or veins and rebuild and replenish any damaged areas. Remove all inflammation and cleanse any infection by the power of Jesus' precious blood. Let the fire of your healing love pass through my entire body to heal and make new any diseased areas so that my body will function the way you created it to function. Touch also my mind and my emotion, even the deepest recesses of my heart. Saturate my entire being with your presence, love, joy and peace and draw me ever closer to you every moment of my life. And Father, fill me with your Holy Spirit and empower me to do your works so that my life will bring glory and honour to your holy name. I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
