World Mission Sunday and month As we journey through the month of October, we enter a special period of reflection and action for our Church's missionary efforts worldwide. World Mission Sunday, which will be celebrated on Sunday next October 20th, is a special day that unites Catholics worldwide in prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission efforts. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is rooted in the Gospel of Matthew: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet," reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone. The Mission Sunday collection next weekend will go to support this missionary work. Please give what you can. We encourage no church gate collection next weekend please The Second Collection as people leave Mass will support this missionary work. Please also use envelope which is now included in yearly box of envelopes.

Lists of the Dead Envelopes are available at the doors of our churches. Those whose names are on the Lists of the Dead will be remembered in Masses on 1st and 2nd November and all First Friday Masses during the year Please return envelope to Church or Parish office as soon as possible Scoil Charthaigh Naofa is running a clothes collection on behalf of the Students Council. Funds gathered will be used by the Students Council to improve student facilities in the school. Clothes and paired shoes will be accepted until Tuesday 19th November and can be dropped off at the school between 9 am and 3 pm . Further information available on www.scoilcharthaighnaofa.ie

Todays Gospel: Our Lords Calling If we approach the Lord, if we seek to enter into a personal relationship with him, he will give us our calling too. His particular call to us may not be what the man in the gospel received. However there will be a similarity too. It will always be a call to give ourselves more fully to the Lord's way, letting go of whatever is holding us back from living according to the values of the gospel that Jesus proclaimed and lived. His call to us will be to do whatever we need to do in order to walk in his way more wholeheartedly. There will be moments when we hear that call very strongly — perhaps when we are least expecting it. If the particular call the Lord makes on us seems daunting, we can find reassurance in his words to his disciples, that 'everything is possible for God.' What we cannot do on our own, we can do with the Lord's help. The Lord's grace at work within us gives us power to live as he wants us to live.

The Relics of Saint Bernadette will be in the Cathedral, Mullingar, from 2pm on Monday, October 21st to 9pm on Tuesday, October 22nd

Saint Teresa of Avila - Feast Day on Tuesday Let nothing disturb you Let nothing frighten you, All things are passing away: God never changes Patience obtains all things Whoever has God lacks nothing; God alone suffices.
St. Ignatius of Antioch Prayer - Feast on Thursday "I am the wheat of God, and am ground by the teeth of the wild beasts, that I may be found the pure bread of God. I long after the Lord, the Son of the true God and Father, Jesus Christ. Him I seek, who died for us and rose again. I am eager to die for the sake of Christ. My love has been crucified, and there is no fire in me that loves anything. But there is living water springing up in me, and it says to me inwardly: "Come to the Father."
Thought for the Day Hatred paralyses life; Love releases it Hatred confuses life; Love harmonizes it Hatred darkens life; Love illuminates it
