November Prayer Service: A Service in memory of all the departed will be held in Mucklagh church on Wednesday 11th November at 7.30pm At this prayer service we will be remembering in a special way those who have died in the past year. We invite their families to join us for this Memorial, as we recognise their grief and support them with our prayers. We also invite other parishioners who may have lost loved ones and celebrated their funerals elsewhere, Cup of tea afterwards in Community Centre

List of the Dead - The month of November is an opportunity for us to continue the tradition of visiting the church and cemetery to pray for our dead. To Remember our loved ones, family and friends during the month of November has always been seen as an act of charity to the faithful departed from those who still have the gift of life to help them attain their eternal rest. Lists of the Dead Envelopes and blank lists are available in all of our churches

Ciara Mageean R.I.P President Connolly said: "Ciara was a wonderful athlete, Ciara stood out not just for her exceptional talent, but for her strength and perseverance, for her clear speaking, and for her determination to succeed. "It was these qualities that led the public to appreciate her so much .In life she showed the same qualities that marked her running career, and has been a source of inspiration to so many people in their own struggles She was much loved and will be greatly missed

Today's Gospel Be Prepared How I live my daily life really matters; it is not just about getting up every morning and doing my best to get through the day. What small but important things am I doing each day that brings joy and hope to others and not just to myself? The challenge and invitation of waiting and being prepared is that I am trying my very best to live my daily life as a follower of Jesus. This will be seen in how I speak, how I act and in how I treat others. Waiting then, is not about some vague and unknown future. Being a Christian and waiting for Jesus is about how I live my daily life, right here and right now. Being ready and being prepared for Jesus is not about sitting around in silence waiting for something to happen. Waiting is never passive. Being ready and prepared means living out the present moment to the fullest. As St. Paul reminds us when he say, we are to avoid everything in our daily lives that is not worthy of the gospel of Jesus. We are to live a life worthy of the calling and vocation that God has given to each and every one of us. Let us get ready and be prepared with all our heart, strength and mind!

A Thought for November on Remembering: In the rising of the sun, and in its going down, we remember them. In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them. In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them. In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them. In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them. In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them. When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them. When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them. When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them. So long as they live, we, too, shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

This Sunday is World Day of the Poor In his message for the 10th World Day of the Poor, Pope Leo XIV reflects on God as "the refuge of the poor," urging Christians to rediscover the central place of the poor and examine our commitment to justice, solidarity, and human dignity. "The absence of God no longer places people side by side in mutual respect," he says, "but ,places one above the other in a relationship of domination and oppression." "The poor have no choice but to cry out to God," he writes, adding that they entrust themselves to Him "certain that they will be heard because God is faithful and rich in mercy."
